

Right Royal Wedding line-up!

It's a top photo op - and who dares say they're dressed up like a dog's dinner?!

Give us a smile!

This regal rover looks a bit gloomy. It's Howard the Basset Hound, as Prince Philip. Seems he's in the dog house already... Oh, dear, was it something he said?

Now, your own kitty queens & Cat Middletons...

My Gnome, doing her best impression of the Queen. And she always gets treated like one!
Lydia Beatty, King's Lynn

Regal Rex looks a top toff in his bow tie. In fact, he's the cat's whiskers.
Jenny Mason, Norfolk

THE ROYAL WAGGING!

Doggy in red

Bob the Whippet-Staffie cross is a vision in red, with pearls that even Camilla would envy! And with hubby Norman the Jack Russell, below, they're guaranteed to be the proud stepmum and dad of the groom.

One is most excited

Her Maj, aka Lottie the miniature Schnauzer, is in the pink. And, look... she's even got a cute little doggie bag, in case she wants to nab a few nibbles to take home to the palace!

Here's to the yappy couple

Don't Toby and Charlie make lovely Royal newlyweds? Cocker Spaniel Toby looks a proper fairytale princess, while black Labrador Charlie's every inch the Prince Charming.

Lead role

Meet Toby again. It's a closely guarded secret who designed the dress, but as long as Toby throws the bouquet this way, who cares?

Corsage... check! Bling... check! Macy will fit right in with the Royals.
Deryn Lindsay, Lanark

Tonight, Matthew, Rio is... Kate Middleton! I think she's a purrrfect princess!
Debbie Lewars, Kincardine
